

“The attacks of September 11th
were intended to break our spirit.

Instead we have emerged stronger and more unified.

We feel renewed devotion to the principles of political, economic, and religious freedom, the rule of law and respect for human life.
We are more determined than ever to live our lives in freedom.”

Rudolph W. Giuliani
Mayor of the City of New York

Special Event Livestream from Academic Rotunda

The UConn Health community marks the 19th anniversary of the September 11th attacks, honoring the nearly 3,000 lives lost that day, including more than 400 first responders of firefighters, police officers, and healthcare professionals who died while trying to save others.

UConn Health welcomes honored guests Governor Ned Lamont, State Senator Gennaro Bizzarro, UConn President Tom Katsouleas, UConn Health CEO Dr. Andrew Agwunobi, UConn Fire Chief William Perez, and other members of the UConn Fire, UConn Police and the Connecticut Department of Correction.

Special thanks to the Office of the CEO, Government Affairs, Communications/Marketing, Parking, Transportation and Events, Campus Planning and Facilities at UConn Health, and to the Connecticut Department of Correction for the beautiful sounds from their bagpipers, drummers and bugler.
